

The benefits of Ai Group membership

Take advantage of more than 140 years of experience actively solving members' workplace issues and representing their interests at the highest levels of national and state government. Partnering with Ai Group can help your business thrive.

Peace of mind

Relax knowing you are covered by expert advice when you need it most: unlimited calls to our Workplace Advice Line; updates on Awards and legislation; and the latest economic data and industry intelligence.

Support services

Gain online access to a wealth of HR policies and templates and update your skills with our workforce development programs and wide-ranging interactive webinars. Engage our consulting teams for complex safety or employment matters, and get expert assistance in applying for government funding.

Influence key policy decisions

Help shape the best environment for your business by gaining access to the policymakers and regulators most influential in your industry sector. Ai Group's policy teams work tirelessly in making submissions on members' behalf to key government inquiries and legislative reviews.

High level networking

Members gain unparalleled access to Australia's industry leaders and influencers - and to your peers. We offer a range of business networks, forums, boardroom lunches, conferences and standards committees, connecting you with industry's best minds and maximising your impact where it counts.

Ai Group membership provides strategic advice, best-practice solutions, policy leadership and everything you need to be compliant, competitive and successful.
